Dear Blanche:

Thank you very much for your letter of 11 January suggesting that I consider writing an autobiography.

Today I have no plans in this respect and frankly should not have any. However, I am flattered by your interest.

When are we going to have a chance to see you here?

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely,

LETTER

For a long time I have been wondering whether you do not seriously want to consider writing your autobiography. You should. You have a wonderful one. I would certainly want to be the publisher. Will you let me know what your thinking is along these lines. If you really are interested, I will come down and see you or look for you here. I think this is almost a must, don't you?

All my best.

As ever,

Blanche W. Knopf
